Skanska awarded additional contract for state-of-the-art R&D facility in USA for USD 136 M, about SEK 908 M

Skanska and a joint venture partner have been awarded an additional contract as construction manager of the state-of-the-art research and development facility in the USA, which was previously announced. Skanska's 50 percent share is USD 136 M, about SEK 908 M, which will be included in the order bookings for Skanska USA Building in the third quarter of 2014.

Skanska anticipates additional amendments to the contract as subsequent work and associated prices are agreed to. Skanska's part of those additions will be in the order bookings for Skanska USA Building in the quarter in which they are signed.

Skanska USA is one of the leading development and construction companies in the country, consisting of four business units: Skanska USA Building, which specializes in building construction; Skanska USA Civil, specialized in civil infrastructure; Skanska Infrastructure Development North America, which develops public-private partnerships; and Skanska USA Commercial Development, which develops commercial projects in select U.S. markets. Headquartered in New York, Skanska USA has more than 9,600 employees and its 2013 revenues were SEK 43.5 billion.
