Adams Promoted to Director of Communications for Midwest and Texas Regions

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 4 2013 – Skanska USA announced today that Shelby Adams has been promoted to director of communications for Skanska’s Midwest and Texas regions.

Adams, a Nashville native, directs the overall communications strategy for Skanska USA’s Midwest and Texas operations, including offices in Nashville, Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, Detroit, Cincinnati and Kalamazoo. Her previous title was regional manager of communications. In addition to her daily responsibilities, Adams also supports Skanska USA’s national diversity and inclusion and project branding efforts.

“Shelby has been with Skanska for 12 years and is a valued and high-performing member of our team. She is a trusted counselor for her internal clients and a strong advocate for Skanska in our region,” said Co-chief Operating Officer Joey Hatch.

In 2012 the Nashville Business Journal named her one of Nashville’s Top Forty Under 40, and in 2009 Adams co-founded the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation’s Nashville’s Top 30 Under 30 event. Additionally she has served on the board of directors for St. Luke’s Community House since 2008, is an alumna of the Young Leaders Council and is a member of the Rotary Club of Nashville. Adams is a 2000 graduate of Lipscomb University with a Bachelor of Science degree.
