Thomas Henriksson appointed new Senior Vice President Group Staff Controlling at Skanska

Thomas Henriksson is appointed new Senior Vice President, Group Staff Controlling, in the Skanska Group. He will assume the position as of December 1 and replace Louise Hallqvist, who will become the new CFO of Skanska Commercial Development Nordic. Thomas will report to Skanska's CFO and Executive Vice President, Peter Wallin.

Thomas has worked at Skanska since 1990 and has throughout the years had many different senior roles within Construction, Project Development and procurement on a Group level. Before taking on this position Thomas worked as CFO for Skanska Commercial Development in the U.S.

"His extensive and solid experience from working within our different business streams in many different home markets together with his excellent reputation and track record in the organization makes him a major asset to the continued development of Controlling at Skanska," says Johan Karlström President and CEO, Skanska.
