Skanska Promotes Keith Sitzman to Senior Project Manager for San Antonio Office

HOUSTON (Oct. 29, 2012) – Skanska announced today the promotion of Keith Sitzman to Senior Project Manager for its San Antonio, Texas office.

“Keith’s expertise and tenacity has been invaluable to Skanska and our clients,” said Brian Freeman, Texas General Manager and Executive Vice President.

During his 10 years with Skanska, Sitzman has primarily been involved with the construction management of healthcare and education projects including Air Force Villages, Northeast Methodist Hospital, Methodist Hospital Children’s Emergency Department, Methodist Stone Oak Hospital and most recently the Metropolitan Methodist Hospital in downtown San Antonio.

Sitzman graduated from Purdue University with a degree in building construction and holds an ASHE Healthcare Contractor’s Certification as well as a Certified Professional Constructor.
