Larry Casey new Senior Vice President Market Making at Skanska AB

To strengthen Skanska's focus on the customers and to advance the customer oriented culture in the company Skanska has established the new position Senior Vice President Market Making. As of June 26 Larry Casey will take on the position.

Larry Casey has been with Skanska for 13 years. His former position was as Executive Vice President Chief Strategy and Markets officer at Skanska USA Building. In that role he was responsible for the Sales, Marketing, and Center of Excellence organizations and support for large pursuits. In his new role Larry Casey will report to Claes Larsson, Executive Vice President, Skanska AB.

"I am looking forward to working with Larry in his new role. Skanska has a number of competitive advantages with its experienced and competent people, project delivery platforms, and strong and innovative culture. Larry is well known for his understanding of the market and the customers and I am sure he will be able to further develop and harness the strength of the company in this regard", says Claes Larsson, Executive Vice President, Skanska AB.
