Skanska's Board of Directors has resolved to acquire own Class B shares

The Board of Directors has resolved to exercise the authorization given by the Annual General Meeting to acquire own Class B shares on Nasdaq Stockholm to secure delivery of shares to participants in the Skanska employee ownership program Seop 6.

At the statutory board meeting on March 29, 2023, the board resolved to exercise the authorization given by the Annual General Meeting 2023 to acquire own Class B shares on the following terms and conditions to secure delivery of shares to participants in the Skanska employee ownership program for the financial years 2023, 2024 and 2025 resolved by the Annual General Meeting 2022 (Seop 6). Acquisitions may be made on one or several occasions, however at the latest until the Annual General Meeting 2024, of no more than 3,500,000 Class B shares on Nasdaq Stockholm at a price within the from time to time applicable range of prices (spread), meaning the interval between the highest purchase price and the lowest selling price. Acquired own Class B shares may be transferred to participants in Seop 6 in accordance with the conditions stipulated in the decision by the Annual General Meeting 2022.

On March 29, 2023 Skanska held 9,129,273 Class B shares in its own custody.
