Skanska announces promotions at USA Civil Southeast

WHITESTONE, NY, January 22, 2008 – Skanska USA Civil announces the promotions of James “Brook” Brookshire, Jay Erwin and Bob Rose in the Southeast Region.

James “Brook” Brookshire has been promoted to the position of Vice President for Project Controls. He has been with Skanska for over 20 years. Brook began as a Field Engineer and has held a variety of positions such as Project Executive and Project Manager.

Jay Erwin will assume the role of Regional General Superintendent. Jay most recently worked as Project Manager on the Escambia Bay Bridge Project. He has worked for Skanska for 21 years and began his career as a carpenter foreman working his way up the ranks.

Bob Rose has been promoted to Regional Senior Vice President. In this position, Bob will continue to over see operations in the Atlanta area. Bob has been one of the key people responsible for the success of Skanska USA Civil’s operations in the area.

Skanska USA Civil focuses on the construction of traffic infrastructure and facilities for power, water and water treatment. The company has about 3,800 employees and operations in the eastern US, Colorado and California. Skanska USA Civil’s revenues amounted to about SEK 9.8 billion in 2006.
