

July 28, 2006

Rodney Cornell is Named Area General Manager for Maryland

Skanska USA Building Inc. announces that Rodney Cornell has been promoted to Area General Manager for the Rockville, Maryland office. Cornell was previously an Account Manager, responsible for project oversight and developing and maintaining client relationships in the Washington, D.C. area.

Cornell has 34 years of experience in the construction industry, both in operations and sales. During his career, Cornell has been involved in the management, construction and delivery of more than 50 major building projects, including regional supervision of more than five million square feet of headquarters/office space and data center projects for such clients as Merrill Lynch, and JPMorgan in New York City and Capital One in Virginia. Cornell also has extensive experience with the public sector, including the federal government, and has served in senior roles on a number of major healthcare projects.

Skanska USA Building Inc. is a leading national and local provider of construction, pre-construction consulting, general contracting and design-build services to a broad range of U.S. industries including life sciences, healthcare, education, high-tech, aviation, transportation and sports and entertainment. Skanska USA Building also provides pharmaceutical validation services to clients. The company, part of the Skanska AB global group of companies, is headquartered in Parsippany, New Jersey, and has approximately 4,100 employees.

Skanska is one of the world's leading construction groups with expertise in construction, development of commercial and residential projects and public-private partnerships. The Group currently has 54,000 employees in selected home markets in Europe, in the US and Latin America. Sales in 2005 totaled $17 billion.

For further information please contact:

Allyson Orfan, 973 753 3639