Skanska Hires Bartoe as Project Developer

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 31, 2008 – Skanska USA Building Inc. announced today the addition of Mary D. Bartoe as Project Developer in its Nashville office. Bartoe, formerly a student intern with Skanska, is a Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED®) Accredited Professional and a Nashville native.

Bartoe joins the newly formed Skanska HealthRealty group, where she will work on the design and construction of medical office buildings and other healthcare development projects. As a LEED Accredited Professional, she will also explore prospects for Skanska in green building and design.

Previously, Bartoe worked at the Atlanta-based firm of Smallwood, Reynolds, Stewart, Stewart Interiors, Inc., as an Interior Architecture Associate, where she participated in the interior architectural design of corporate, hospitality and high-rise projects. Her responsibilities in that role included managing construction documents for the condominium portion of the Signature Tower in Nashville, and developing finishes, plumbing and appliance packages for the Signature Tower and the Streets of Buckhead project in Atlanta.

A graduate of Harpeth Hall, Bartoe received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Georgia, where she was a Presidential Scholar. She resides in Brentwood, Tenn.
