

December 3, 2015

08:30 am CET

George Fadool new Senior Vice President Ethics at Skanska

George Fadool has been appointed Senior Vice President Ethics at Skanska. George will begin December 3, 2015 and will report to Christel Åkerman, Executive Vice President Skanska AB.

George Fadool has been working in Skanska since 1999. He has held different positions in Skanska's US operations, both line and support management roles. The past 6 years George has been working as the Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer in Skanska USA.

"George has a strong Ethical compass and high integrity. With his experience of implementing and understanding ways to systematically follow-up on compliance and Ethics matters in the US, we will strengthen the focus of Ethics in the Group. George is an appreciated colleague and good team player. I am pleased to welcome him to his new position", says Christel Åkerman, Executive Vice President Skanska AB.

For further information please contact:

Edvard Lind, Group Press Officer, Skanska AB, tel: +46 (0)10-448 88 08

Direct line for media: tel: +46 (0)10-448 88 99

This and previous releases can also be found at www.skanska.com

Skanska AB may be required to disclose the information provided herein pursuant to the Securities Markets Act.

Skanska is one of the world's leading project development and construction groups with expertise in construction, development of commercial and residential premises, and public-private partnerships projects. Based on its global green experience, Skanska aims to be the clients' first choice for Green solutions. The Group currently has 58,000 employees in selected home markets in Europe and North America. Skanska's sales in 2014 totaled SEK 145 billion.