Skanska Hires Alissa Roberts as Manager of Business Development

ROCKVILLE, Md. – Skanska USA Building Inc. announced today the hiring of Alissa Roberts as Manager of Business Development for its metropolitan Washington, D.C. office.

Roberts comes to Skanska from Atlanta where she worked as a Project Manager for Fulcrum Construction. In that role she was regularly involved in new business development as well as corporate marketing. Prior to that position she worked in asset management and as a mortgage consultant.

“Alissa brings significant experience and tremendous intuition to our team,” said Skanska Area General Manager Chuck Brawley. “Her knowledge of client needs will be a tremendous benefit to both Skanska and its clients.”

While in college at the Georgia Institute of Technology, Roberts started her career in construction. She interned with various construction and design firms as she completed her bachelor’s degree in building construction management. She was Student Government Class President during her freshman and sophomore years at Georgia Tech. Roberts also participated in many charitable organizations including an international non-profit housing builder. She was active in the Student Construction Association, Associated Builders & Contractors of GA, Association of General Contractors and the Urban Land Institute.

Roberts is currently a member of the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP), the Society for Marketing Professional Services (SMPS) and an Associate Member of the Northern Virginia Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.
