Skanska divests logistics facility in Helsingborg, Sweden, for about SEK 240 M

Skanska has sold a logistics facility in Helsingborg, Sweden, for about SEK 240 M. The buyer is Logicenters. The divestment will be recorded by Skanska Commercial Property Development Nordic in the second quarter 2019. The transfer of the facility will take place during the first quarter 2020.

The logistics facility comprises approximately 30,150 square meters and will have future-proof specifications and be adapted for the tenant PostNord TPL. The facility is being developed and built by Skanska Sweden.

The property is located in a well-established business area in Helsingborg, close to both the E4 and E20, which is growing as a logistics hub.

The project is under construction and the facility will be completed during the first quarter 2020.

Skanska is one of the leading development and construction companies in the Nordics, with operations in building construction and civil engineering in Sweden, Norway and Finland, and developing residential- and commercial property projects in select home markets. The commercial development stream is also active in Denmark. Skanska had sales of about SEK 67 billion and more than 15,500 employees in its Nordic operations during 2018.
