Skanska in New Jersey LEED-ing the Way with Accredited Professionals

Parsippany, N.J. – Skanska USA Building Inc. announced today that 31 of its New Jersey employees became LEED® Accredited Professionals (LEED APs).

LEED APs are building industry professionals who have demonstrated a thorough understanding of green building and the LEED Green Building Rating System™. The LEED AP credential indicates that the professional has the knowledge and skills to facilitate the LEED certification process.

LEED Professional Accreditation is a voluntary designation achieved by more than 60,000 individuals who have passed the LEED Professional Accreditation exam. The Green Building Certification Institute recommends that LEED AP candidates have building industry knowledge, as well as experience working with green building professionals from multiple disciplines.

The employees who earned the accreditation are: Ashraf Abdulbaqi, Kevin Bowen, Justin Chan, Paul Cocuzza, Tom Driscoll, Frank Falciani, Aaron Gillespie, Amanda Gillespie, Mike Gross, Bradley Harris, Peter Hoer, Thomas Hyland, Michael Kalafut, Andy Keglovitz, Ed Kosinski, Joe Krizan, Jim Levey, Mike Marullo, Shane Messner, Mark Minchak, Angela Moulton, Stacy Nevins, Brent Nickles, Paul Nylund, Steve Potaki, William Rubio, Sean Savio, Robert Stone, Angelo Tsai, Maikell Vilanova and Al Weiss.

“I am proud of our employees who have completed the accreditation, said Mike Leondi, Skanska’s Area General Manager for the New Jersey office. “LEED APs strengthen our company’s green building qualifications and will help us continue to position ourselves as one of the nation’s top green builders.”
