Caroline Walméus new Senior Vice President Controlling Skanska

Caroline Walméus has as of April 4, 2017 been appointed Senior Vice President Controlling at Skanska on a permanent basis. Caroline has since February been acting as Senior Vice President Controlling and is reporting to Peter Wallin, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Skanska.

“With Caroline's background from other operations and experience of working in different parts of the group, she is well placed to take a broader approach such as the responsibility for Controlling”, says Peter Wallin.

Caroline Walméus, who previously was Business Controller for Skanska UK and Skanska ID, succeeds Thomas Henriksson, who took on the role as CFO Skanska Commercial Development Europe in February.
