Skanska builds office building in Helsingborg, Sweden, for about SEK 350 M

Skanska has signed an agreement with Wihlborgs Fastigheter AB to build a new office building, Prisma, at the central station in Helsingborg, Sweden. The contract is worth about SEK 350 M, which will be included in the order bookings for Sweden for the first quarter 2019.

The office building will be between six and eight floors high and will have a total area of 13,000 square meters.

Prisma is being built to meet high standards of sustainability and the goal is to seek certification according to Miljöbyggnad, gold level. Miljöbyggnad is a certification for buildings that considers energy, indoor environment and materials, based on Swedish building regulations and building practice.

Construction work has begun and the building will be completed before the end of 2020.

Skanska is one of the leading development and construction companies in the Nordics, with operations in building construction and civil engineering in Sweden, Norway and Finland, and developing residential- and commercial property projects in select home markets. The commercial development stream is also active in Denmark. Skanska offers services in public-private partnerships. Skanska had sales of about SEK 65 billion and more than 15,000 employees in its Nordic operations during 2017.
