Skanska expands hospital in New York, USA, for USD 61 M, about SEK 510 M

Skanska has signed a contract to expand the existing Orange Regional Medical Center healthcare facility in Middletown, New York. The contract is worth USD 61 M, about SEK 510 M, which will be included in order bookings for Skanska USA Building for the second quarter of 2015.

Skanska will expand the existing hospital facility to include a new 14,000 square-meter, five-story medical office building and a 2,400 square-meter, single-story cancer center at the hospital's main campus.

Construction is underway and completion is expected in late 2016.

Skanska USA is one of the leading development and construction companies in the country, consisting of four business units: Skanska USA Building, which specializes in building construction; Skanska USA Civil, specialized in civil infrastructure; Skanska Infrastructure Development North America, which develops public-private partnerships; and Skanska USA Commercial Development, which develops commercial projects in select U.S. markets. Headquartered in New York, Skanska USA has more than 10,000 employees and its 2014 revenues were SEK 43.5 billion.
