Skanska constructs hospital expansion in Gainesville, USA, for USD 225 M, about SEK 1.5 billion

Skanska has signed a contract to build an expansion of the UF Shands Cardiovascular/Neuroscience Hospital in Gainesville, FL, USA. The contract value, USD 225 M, about SEK 1.5 billion, will be included in order bookings for Skanska USA Building for the first quarter of 2014.

The 48,000 square meter conversion will be constructed adjacent to the UF Health / Shands Cancer Hospital, which was completed by Skanska USA in 2009.

Construction will begin in fall/winter 2014, and is expected to be completed in the fall of 2017.

Skanska USA is one of the leading development and construction companies in the country, consisting of four business units: Skanska USA Building, which specializes in building construction; Skanska USA Civil, specialized in civil infrastructure; Skanska Infrastructure Development North America, which develops public-private partnerships; and Skanska USA Commercial Development, which develops commercial projects in select U.S. markets. Headquartered in New York, Skanska USA has more than 9,600 employees and its 2013 revenues were SEK 43.5 billion.
