Jarosław Urbańczyk new Senior Vice President IT at Skanska

Jarosław Urbańczyk has been appointed Senior Vice President IT at Skanska. Jarosław will begin his new position April 1 and will report to Veronica Rörsgård, Executive Vice President Skanska AB.

Jarosław Urbańczyk has had a crucial role in transforming and building a well-functioning IT organization in Skanska Poland, and later on for all Business Units in Poland. He has built and led the common IT organization for Skanska in Central Europe since 2013.

“With his deep understanding of our business, great leadership skills and strong values Jarosław is a great fit for the role”, says Veronica Rörsgård.

Jarosław succeeds Kevin Hutchinson who currently holds the position together with the role as Chief Information Officer at Skanska USA. Kevin will going forward remain in his role as CIO at Skanska USA.

“Kevin has done an excellent job in building a strong IT team across our business units and driving a common One Skanska way to support our business”, says Veronica Rörsgård.
