Skanska Promotes Craig Eckert to Project Executive

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 30, 2008—Skanska USA Building Inc. announced today the promotion of Craig Eckert to a Project Executive. Eckert is based out of the company's Nashville office and has worked for Skanska for four years.

With more than 14 years of commercial healthcare construction experience, Eckert is the Project Executive for a $150 million tower addition project at Miami Valley Hospital in Dayton, Ohio. Other projects he has overseen include the Atrium Medical Center in Franklin, Ohio, Aventura Hospital and Medical Center in Aventura, Florida, and Halifax Medical Center in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Eckert earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Building Construction Management from Purdue University. He also has an American Society for Healthcare Engineering (ASHE) Healthcare Contractor's Certification and is OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Administration) certified.

Skanska USA Building Inc. is a leading national and local provider of construction, pre-construction consulting, general contracting and design-build services to a broad range of U.S. industries including life sciences, healthcare, education, high-tech, aviation, transportation and sports and entertainment. Skanska USA Building also provides pharmaceutical validation services to clients. The company, part of the Skanska AB global group of companies, is headquartered in Parsippany, New Jersey, and has approximately 4,700 employees.

Skanska is one of the world's leading construction groups with expertise in construction, development of commercial and residential projects and public-private partnerships. The Group currently has 60,000 employees in selected home markets in Europe, in the U.S. and Latin America. Headquartered in Stockholm, Sweden, and listed on the Stockholm Stock Exchange, Skanska's sales in 2007 totaled $20 billion.
