

Press Release

February 26, 2009

Skanska Promotes Craig Eckert to Vice President

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Skanska USA Building Inc. announced today the promotion of Craig Eckert to Vice President of Operations. Eckert is based out of the company's Nashville, Tennessee office and has worked for Skanska for more than four years.

With 15 years of commercial healthcare construction experience, Eckert is currently overseeing a $150 million tower addition project at Miami Valley Hospital in Dayton, Ohio. Other projects he has overseen include the Atrium Medical Center in Franklin, Ohio; Aventura Hospital and Medical Center in Aventura, Florida; and Flagler Hospital in St. Augustine, Florida.

Eckert earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Building Construction Management from Purdue University. He recently became a LEED® (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Accredited Professional. He also has an American Society for Healthcare Engineering (ASHE) Healthcare Contractor's Certification and is OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Administration) trained.

For further information please contact:

Shelby Adams, Field Communications Manager, Skanska USA Building,
(615) 238-6720
Elizabeth Elmore, (615) 259-4000

This and previous releases can also be found at www.skanska.com.

Skanska USA Building Inc. is a leading national and local provider of construction, pre-construction consulting, general contracting and design-build services to a broad range of U.S. industries including science and technology, health care, education, high-tech, aviation, transportation and sports and entertainment. Skanska USA Building also provides pharmaceutical validation services to clients. The company, part of the Skanska AB global group of companies, is headquartered in Parsippany, New Jersey, and has approximately 4,700 employees.

Skanska is one of the world's leading project development and construction groups with expertise in construction, development of commercial and residential projects and public-private partnerships. The Group currently has 60,000 employees in selected home markets in Europe, in the US and Latin America. Headquartered in Stockholm, Sweden and listed on the Stockholm Stock Exchange, Skanska's sales in 2007 totaled SEK 139 billion.