Skanska Adds Two to Florida Senior Leadership Team

Tampa, Fla. – Skanska USA’s building unit announced today that Matt Gilbert and Roger Stephan have both been promoted to senior vice president/account manager for Florida.

A University of Cincinnati graduate with a Building Construction degree, Gilbert joined Skanska in 2004 and has 18 years of overall experience in the industry. Some of the projects he has worked on recently include Shands Healthcare in Gainesville, Nemours Children’s Hospital in Orlando and MetLife/MetWest International in Tampa.

Formerly a vice president, Gilbert will manage the company’s Orlando operations and focus on the continued growth of Central Florida, Gainesville and Jacksonville in his new role.

“Matt is an admired leader and has an excellent knowledge and understanding of strategic positioning,” said Fred Hames, Skanska Florida general manager. “I know he will excel in his new role.”

Stephan graduated with a Civil Engineering degree from Louisiana State University. He joined Skanska in 1998 and has 21 years of overall experience in the industry. During his Skanska career, Stephan has been an integral part of the Tampa General Hospital and Moffitt Cancer Center projects.

Formerly the vice president of healthcare, Stephan will manage the Tampa operations and focus on the continued growth of Tampa Bay and Southwest Florida in his new role.

“Roger’s commitment to providing client value through creative thinking and problem solving is evident through his numerous long-term client relationships,” Hames said. “He is a natural for his new position and we’re excited to have him on our senior leadership team.”
