Karolina Cederhage appointed new Senior Vice President Communication Skanska AB

Karolina Cederhage appointed new Senior Vice President Communication, Skanska AB. Karolina has worked in Skanska since 2011 and is currently Head of Communication at Skanska AB. She has experience from several Skanska units and big projects. Karolina has a 17 year background in communication for multinational organizations.

Karolina will take on her new position as of today and report to Anders Danielsson, President and CEO Skanska. Karolina succeeds Katarina Grönwall who will be Chief Communication Officer at Handelsbanken.

“I am happy to welcome Karolina in her new position. She has a broad experience from communications as well as a good understanding of the business. I know her as a very competent, result oriented and value driven colleague and I am looking forward to working together. I also want to thank Katarina and wish her the best in her new role”, says Anders Danielsson, President and CEO, Skanska AB.
