Skanska Announces the Promotion of Daniel to Senior Vice President

Houston, T.X. – Skanska USA announced today that its building business unit, which is a leading provider of construction management, preconstruction, and design-build services, has recently promoted Matt Daniel to senior vice president of business development. Daniel, who formerly served as vice president of business development, is based out of the company's Houston office and has worked for Skanska for five years.

He was vital to the successful growth of Skanska's Houston office which opened in February of 2005 and has been instrumental in growing customer relationships for the company such as the Texas A&M System, Harris County Hospital District, Alamo Colleges, Texas Facilities Commission, and University of Houston.

Daniel earned a bachelor's degree in Building Construction from Texas A&M University. He is a LEED® (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Accredited Professional. He also serves on several local boards including the Sam Houston Area Council of Boy Scouts, Spring Branch ISD Academy of Finance and Associated Builders and Contractors of Greater Houston.
