Skanska to build the new Alderwood Middle School in Lynnwood, USA, worth USD 39 M, about SEK 330 M

Skanska has signed a contract with its existing client, the Edmonds School District, to build the new Alderwood Middle School in Lynnwood, Washington. The contract is worth USD 39 M, about SEK 330 million, and will be included in the order bookings for Skanska USA Building in the third quarter 2015.

The facility will be approximately 11,000 square meters with a two-story main building adjacent to a one-story gymnasium. Additionally, the project includes work such as parking areas and significant new storm water management facilities.

Construction is under way and will be completed in January 2017.

Skanska USA is one of the leading development and construction companies in the country, consisting of four business units: Skanska USA Building, which specializes in building construction; Skanska USA Civil, specialized in civil infrastructure; Skanska Infrastructure Development North America, which develops public-private partnerships; and Skanska USA Commercial Development, which develops commercial projects in select U.S. markets. Headquartered in New York, Skanska USA has more than 9,600 employees and its 2014 revenues were SEK 43.5 billion.
