

February 17, 2016

08:30 am CET

André Löfgren new Senior Vice President Investor Relations at Skanska

André Löfgren has been appointed Senior Vice President Investor Relations at Skanska. André succeeds Magnus Persson on the position as of February 17 and will report to Peter Wallin, CFO Skanska AB.

“André has deep understanding of our business from many senior positions and has been very successful in forming our investor relations base in the USA”, says Peter Wallin.

André Löfgren has been with Skanska since 2002 and has thorough experience from many different roles, the last four years as Vice President Investor Relations, whereof two years as responsible for establishing the IR function in the U.S. to cover the North American market.

Magnus Persson will take on the role as CFO Skanska Sweden as of May 1 and will report to Pierre Olofsson, Business Unit President Skanska Sweden.

“I want to thank Magnus for his great contributions over the years. Magnus has been instrumental in developing our business plan and to improve our activities within the investor relations field. I am certain that he continue to add a lot of value to Skanska Sweden”, says Peter Wallin.

For further information please contact:

Andreas Joons, Press Officer, Skanska AB, tel +46 (0)10 449 04 94

Direct line for media: tel: +46 (0)10-448 88 99

This and previous releases can also be found at www.skanska.com

Skanska AB may be required to disclose the information provided herein pursuant to the Securities Markets Act.

Skanska is one of the world's leading project development and construction groups with expertise in construction, development of commercial and residential premises, and public-private partnerships projects. Based on its global green experience, Skanska aims to be the clients' first choice for Green solutions. The Group currently has 43,100 employees in selected home markets in Europe and North America. Skanska's sales in 2015 totalled SEK 155 billion.