Skanska Hires Heer as Senior Estimator

NEW HAVEN, Conn. – Skanska USA Building Inc. announced today it has hired David Heer as Senior Estimator. Heer is a 15-year veteran of the construction industry with project experience throughout Connecticut, Massachusetts and New York. He is a Certified Professional Estimator (CPE).

“Dave has a proven track record with clients in all sectors and his counsel will be valuable both to Skanska and its clients,” said Alan Sparr, Skanska’s Senior Vice President in the New Haven office. “We want to always ensure that we not only provide the best quality construction but also the best value to our clients. Dave’s abilities are instrumental to achieving that goal.”

Heer comes to Skanska after having spent the last 15 years in various project management and estimating roles. In much of his work, he has collaborated with architects, engineers, project owners and local officials to ensure projects are delivered on budget and on time, yet meeting the needs of all parties.

Heer, who served with the United States Navy, is an active member of his Durham, Connecticut community. He serves on the town’s Zoning Board of Appeals and is a volunteer firefighter. Heer received a bachelor’s degree in civil engineering from the University of Connecticut.
