Claes Larsson appointed Business Unit President for Commercial Development Europe

Claes Larsson is appointed as Business Unit President for Skanska Commercial Development Europe. Claes succeeds Nicklas Lindberg, who has decided to leave Skanska for another position within the sector in Central Europe, effective of today.

“I want to thank Nicklas for valuable contribution to our central European business within Commercial Property Development, during his years in Skanska. We have today a very solid organization in all chosen submarkets and a good platform for future growth of the business”, says Claes Larsson, Executive Vice President Skanska AB.

Claes Larsson continues in his role as Executive Vice President and member of Skanska's Senior Executive Team with responsibility for the company's units within Commercial Development.
