

Press Release

October 28, 2009

Skanska Promotes Greg Lowery to Senior Project Manager

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Skanska USA Building, Inc., has promoted Greg Lowery to Senior Project Manager from Project Manager. Lowery joined Skanska in 2004.

During his eight years in the construction industry, Lowery has worked on health care projects around the Southeast, providing direct management oversight for the construction team. His most recent project was the Tollgate Village Medical Center in Thompson Station, Tenn. Lowery's other projects include the Atrium Medical Center Replacement Hospital in Middletown, Ohio, and the Centennial Medical Office Building in Nashville.

The St. Louis native graduated in 2001 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Construction Science and Management from Kansas State University's College of Engineering. He resides in Cincinnati and received his construction certification from the American Society of Healthcare Engineering.

For further information please contact:

Shelby Adams, (615) 238-6720
Elizabeth Elmore, (615) 259-4000

This and previous releases can also be found at www.skanska.com.

Skanska USA Building Inc. is a leading national and local provider of construction, pre-construction consulting, general contracting and design-build services to a broad range of U.S. industries including science and technology, health care, education, high-tech, aviation, transportation and sports and entertainment. Skanska USA Building also provides pharmaceutical validation services to clients. The company, part of the Skanska AB global group of companies, is headquartered in Parsippany, New Jersey, and has approximately 4,700 employees.

Skanska is one of the world's leading project development and construction groups with expertise in construction, development of commercial and residential projects and public-private partnerships. The Group currently has 56,000 employees in selected home markets in Europe, in the U.S. and Latin America. Headquartered in Stockholm, Sweden and listed on the Stockholm Stock Exchange, Skanska's revenue in 2008 totaled $21.8 billion.