Skanska to develop and construct supermarket and sports hall in Stockholm, Sweden, for SEK 330 M

Skanska has signed a contract to construct a supermarket for ICA Maxi and a sports hall for Huddinge municipality in Stockholm, Sweden. The contract is worth SEK 330 M, which is included in order bookings for Skanska Sweden for the fourth quarter of 2014.

The supermarket will consist of one floor with a gross area of 8,000 square meters. The sports hall is built on top of the supermarket in three stories with a total gross area of 6,000 square meters.

The area, Flemingsbergsdalen, will be developed in phases. Work on the infrastructure in the area has already begun. The first phase includes the now contracted supermarket and sports hall and a rental housing project for 184 apartments sold to Heba, as previously announced.

The building is scheduled for completion at the turn of the year 2016/17.

Skanska Sweden is one of Sweden's largest construction companies, with operations in building and civil-engineering construction. The business unit has approximately 11,000 employees and revenue in 2013 amounted to approximately SEK 30 billion. In Sweden, Skanska is also active in the development of residential construction and commercial premises.
