Skanska Promotes Todd Reeves to Vice President/Project Executive in North Texas

DALLAS/FORT WORTH – Skanska, one of the world’s leading construction and development firms, announced the promotion of Todd Reeves to vice president/project executive in North Texas.

An industry veteran with 19 years of experience in commercial construction, Reeves is based the Skanska’s North Texas office. He was most recently a project executive on the highly successful Collin College Wylie Campus. Previously, he has served on the construction teams for clients including IBM, Royal Bank of Canada, DFW Airport and more.

“Since joining Skanska in 2001 as an intern, Todd has been instrumental to our business growth and success by bringing a high-level of detail and energy to lead his teams,” said Dennis Yung, executive vice president and general manager for Skanska’s North Texas construction operations. “As a leader and mentor, we welcome Todd into this role as Skanska continues to elevate and expand our construction operations here in North Texas.”

Reeves is originally from Texas and attended Texas A&M University. He is an active member of the American Heart Association (AHA) and holds certifications in injury-free environment (IFE) training. He currently resides in Flower Mound with his wife and children.
