Skanska Promotes Eric Bunner to Project Executive

San Antonio, T.X. – Skanska USA today announced that its building business unit, a leading provider of construction management, preconstruction and design-build services, has promoted Eric Bunner to project executive from senior project manager.

In this role, Bunner will serve as the point of contact during construction, and will be responsible for the technical and managerial leadership of projects and oversight of subcontractor support resources.

Bunner has been in the construction industry for 10 years and with Skanska since 2004. He currently oversees the Tri-Service Research Lab project in San Antonio, a $70 million design-build research facility for the Army, Navy and Air Force located on Fort Sam Houston.

Bunner received a bachelor's degree in industrial technology management from the University of Wisconsin-Platteville and holds a Healthcare Contractor's Certification from the American Society for Healthcare Engineers.
