Piotr Janiszewski new Business Unit President Skanska Poland

Piotr Janiszewski has been appointed Business Unit President Skanska Poland as of July 1. The last four months Piotr Janiszewski has been the Chief Operations Officer for Skanska Poland. Piotr has been with Skanska since 1997 and held positions such as project manager, branch manager, project director for the biggest project in Central Europe, the PPP (Private Public Partnership) highway A1 in Poland and Executive Vice President Skanska Poland.

“Piotr is well known and respected in Skanska for his business acumen and his leadership skills. This will be of great value for Skanska in the execution and implementation of the Skanska Business Plan”, says Roman Wieczorek, Executive Vice President, Skanska AB.

Piotr Janiszewski succeeds Krzysztof Andrulowicz who will leave after 23 years within Skanska Poland.

“I want to thank Krzysztof who developed and implemented the strategy of local presence. The strategy together with Krzysztof’s dedication to safety has laid a solid foundation for the new business plan”, says Roman Wieczorek.
